Re: Visor Clip for the 3-Btn Dual Frequency Remote p/n 37218R

Starting in November, production will change the dual frequency remote's visor clip to another design. The new design can be seen currently on the Closed Confirm™ remote and will be more compatible with a variety of car visor thicknesses. Please continue to order the complete part number 37218R. This is only a design change notification regarding the visor clip portion.

Please see the new service part # below for the clip only.
