Re: Discontinued: 4-Button, 390 MHz, Keychain Remote, Model GIT390-4

---

Please be advised that the 4-Button, 390 MHz, Keychain Transmitter, Model GIT390-4 (36292R), has been phased out and will no longer be available for sale. While supplies last, the blister packed version of the same item, Model GIT390-4 BL (36290R) can be used or please begin using the new G3T-BX transmitter that comes standard packed into our newest additions to the product line, IntelliG™ and TriloG™ residential openers.

Discontinued:
Model GIT390-4 (36292R)

The G3T-BX will support both Intellicode® 1 and 2, as well as offer both 315 & 390 MHz frequency for the optimal performance and maximum flexibility for you and your customers.

Please use:
Model G3T-BX (37218R)
